

'LOST AND FOUND' TRAGEDIES OF WAR

The Happier Ending to the World's Greatest Conflict Is a Paradox.

HOW FAMILIES ARE REUNITED

Jewish Immigrants Are Finding Relatives Lost for Five Long Years.

IN BLANCKE BRACE

NEW YORK, July 19.—The most recent and most poignant of the tragedies of war is the loss of family members.

No longer is it a tragedy to find a man or woman missing in action. No longer is it a tragedy to find a man or woman missing in action.

Families, they are the lost and found articles of the war. The war has been a tragedy for the families of the soldiers.

The war has been a tragedy for the families of the soldiers. The war has been a tragedy for the families of the soldiers.

Humor in Tragedy

The War Risk Insurance Bureau Finds Plenty of Amusement in Scanning the Appeals for Soldiers' Funds Which Daily Reach the Department.

World's Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Officials of the War Risk Insurance Bureau have found plenty of amusement in scanning the appeals for soldiers' funds which daily reach the department.

The war risk insurance bureau in Washington which receives so much correspondence every day with it is a place where the mail is not only sorted but also read.
